CUESTA Foundation, Inc.

2023 ANNUAL REPORT

HISTORY

The Cuesta Foundation was formed on May 16, 1962, by Charles W. Oliphant and his sister, Allene O. Mayo, to continue the philanthropic legacy of thier father, A.G. Oliphant.

COMMUNITY PROJECTS

The University of Tulsa Oliphant Hall and Oliphant Chair in Mathematics, The Tulsa Children's Museum, Tulsa Zoo and Oklahoma Aquarium exhibit expansions, and Crosstown Learning Center's continuing education for teachers.

MISSION

The Directors of the Cuesta Foundationwanttobringjoytotheircommunities and its citizens by funding charitable organizations that are makingalong-termimpactandservingmankind by assisting people who are in need and have a desire to better themselves.Organizationsthatcandemonstrate this philosophy will be considered above others.

The Cuesta Foundation's areas of emphasis are Arts and Humanities, Education, Social Services and Community Needs. The Foundation will support operating expenses and capital needs of qualifying organizations.

Preference will be given to organizations in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

AREAS OF SUPPORT

TheDirectorsofthe Cuesta Foundationauthorized $108,500 in grants to organizations and institutions primarily in Tulsa, OK, in 2023.

Arts, Culture, & Humanities
Tulsa Children's Museum-$62,500
Tulsa Regional STEM Alliance - $7,500

Education
TheUniversity of Tulsa - $22,500

Health & Wellness
Community Food Bank of Eastern Oklahoma - $5,000

Human Services
The Bridges Foundation - $1,000
Walids Fund - $10,000

For more information, please visit www.fmiokc.com/cuesta

DIRECTORS

Gregory W.Oliphant, President

Thomas J. Oliphant, Vice-President

Jamie D. Oliphant, Director

”

We continue to be impressed with the passion and willingness of nonprofit agencies. We are proud to support their vision for a better future for all Tulsans.

-Greg Oliphant, President

“

APPLICATION TIMELINE

Letter of Inquiry -March 31, 2023

Grant Application - June 18, 2023

Grantmaking Meeting - July 2023

Fund 2023 Grants - August 2023

CUESTA
Foundation, Inc.